

Help us find myrtle rust

Myrtle rust is a fungus that can seriously affect our native taonga trees such as pōhutukawa, mānuka and ramarama. Introduced trees like bottle brush, monkey apple and eucalyptus could also be affected.

Help us track the spread of myrtle rust.

If you see it, report it, don't touch it.

Call 0800 80 99 66

Visit mpi.govt.nz/myrtlerust

Biosecurity New Zealand
Ministry for Primary Industries
Manatū Ahu Matua

Department of Conservation
Te Papa Atawhai